SAU Annual Invitational Results

Magnolia, Ark. - The University of Texas-Tyler nipped Southern Arkansas University, 29-32, to win the men's division of a cross country meet Saturday, while the University of Arkansas-Little Rock pulled away from the pack to easily capture the women's title, 19-40, over runner-up Southern Arkansas.

In the men's division, UTT and SAU swapped places from a year ago when the Muleriders easily ran away from UTT, 27-68. Following UT-Tyler and Southern Arkansas in third place was LeTourneau University with a distant 102, and East Texas Baptist University was fourth with 120. Grambling State University and the University of Arkansas-Little Rock did not field enough runners to compete for the team title.

Southern Arkansas' All-Gulf South Conference Adrian Romanos finished the 8K course in first place with a time of 27:00. Ben Donnan of UTT was second in 28:13, Elliot Isom of SAU was third in 28:23, former Mulerider Tyler Johnson ran unattached for fourth in 29:03, Walker Brown of UTT was fifth in 29:15, R.J. Cowan of UTT was sixth in 29:21, Cade Lambert of SAU seventh in 29:40, Bojan Kajtaz of UTT eighth in 29:51, Winston Sims of Grambling State ninth in 30:02, and Morgan Collier of SAU 10th in 30:12.

In the university's women's division, Delta State University finished third behind UALR and SAU with 83, Grambling State was fourth with 125, Henderson State University fifth with 153, UT-Tyler sixth with 166, and ETBU seventh with 181.

Kata Lovratoro, Petra Kindland, and Whitney Keith of UALR finished one-two-three in respective times of 17:10, 17:18, and 18:03 over the 4,780-meter course. Gaby Mendoza, SAU's All-Gulf South Conference runner in 2003, was fourth in 18:15. Mendoza missed the 2004 season with an injury.

Katie Bortz of UALR was fifth in 18:18, Kendall Mears of SAU sixth in 19:04, Lindsey Musielak of SAU seventh in 19:14, Maggie Cox of UALR eighth in 19:20, Andrea Rumpza of UALR ninth in 19:45, and Matasha Smith of Delta State 10th in 20:00.

In senior high boys division, Lake Hamilton breezed to an easy first place finish over the 4,780 meters with 15, DeKalb, Tex., was second with 65, Magnolia third with 85, Redwater, Tex., fourth with 110, Sheridan fifth with 113, Genoa Central sixth with 182, Murfreesboro seventh with 194, Hamburg eighth with 214, and Pine Bluff ninth with 265.

Alex Bearden of Lake Hamilton finished first over teammate Josh Brewer with times of 15:24 and 15:47. DeQueen's John Lagunas was third in 16:13, Hunter Dunn of Lake Hamilton was fourth in 17:03, and Logan Docley was fifth in 17:16.

In senior high girl's, only three teams competed with Monticello first over the 4,780 meters with 26, DeKalb was a close runner-up with 29, and Pine Bluff was third with a distant 73.

Savannah Meeks of DeKalb was first in 20:23, Chelsea Weaver of Monticello second in 20:38, Michaela Krcova of Kirby third in 20:51, Heather Pro of Redwater fourth in 21:13, and Ashley Timer of Monticello fifth in 21:38.

Lake Hamilton was first in the junior high boys division with 36, Sheridan second with 46, Murfreesboro third with 76, Prescott fourth with 107, Genoa Central fifth with 151, and Texarkana North Heights sixth with 196.

Only two schools, Lake Hamilton and Hamburg, competed in the junior high girls division over the 1,944-meter course. Lake Hamilton was first with 19, and Hamburg had 42.
